Frequently asked questions

How do I register with ACCA?

You will need register with ACCA prior to starting your apprenticeship, via the ACCA website. Your employer must pay for the cost of your registration.

What happens if I have exemptions from some modules?

You will need to check which exemptions you can claim with ACCA directly. This will determine the point at which you will enter the apprenticeship and the modules the programme will include. Your employer will need to cover the cost of your exemptions.

How will I study for my professional qualification?

ACCA tuition is delivered via both classroom and online study modes.

Can I choose when I sit my exams?

All of your exams are planned in advance, before your apprenticeship begins, so you will have a clear idea of what exams you have to sit and when, before you start.

FI Skills and Development Coaches

Our growing team of highly experienced Skills and Development Coaches ensure apprentice and line manager programme understanding and assist with any queries right up until the end of the apprenticeship.

They are passionate about trainee development and work closely with our employers, the FI Client Relationship Management team and our expert Tutors in order to support progression and subsequently achievement of the highest potential for each individual apprentice.

The team includes specialists in each End Point Assessment and Professional Qualification along with Public Sector, Industry and Practice experts, plus a Mental Health and Apprenticeship Support Lead in order to assist and advise where additional interventions may be necessary.

What our clients say about us

Communication, small classes, the feeling of building up relationships with FI. They know the trainees, so they know who you're talking about. You can tell that they know who they are. They're invested and we have great communication.

Michelle DiMascio, Assistant Manager, UHY

FI are so approachable and knowledgeable about the whole apprenticeship experience. In-depth knowledge of AAT, ACA, ACCA. They can explain everything to us a lot better than what we've experienced previously, they know all the ins and outs to stop us from tripping up.

Kathryn Rigbye, Manager – People, PM+M
